Christian Cheer

“The best way to spread Christmas cheer is to sing loud for all to hear” (Buddy the Elf). Now I do not know the actual validity of such a statement but even in silly movies I find reflection on the Christian life. In the past months we have had the opportunity to start learning some new songs. While any human can sing, there is something unique and different when it comes to worship. When else in life do we get to offer up praise from our lips and utter timeless truths?

One could definitely make the assertion that spreading Christian cheer can be done through singing. But what is Christian cheer? While I think a longer discussion is deserved on such a topic let us look to God's Word. Acts 3:8 says, “And leaping up, he stood and began to walk, and entered the temple with them, walking and leaping and praising God.” Acts 16:34 says, “Then he brought them up into his house and set food before them. And he rejoiced along with his entire household that he had believed in God.” Luke 17:15-16 says, “Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice; and he fell on his face at Jesus' feet, giving him thanks. Now he was a Samaritan.”

While the word cheer is not there in specific, I think it is felt. The beggar was strengthened to walk, the jailer's life was saved, and the leper was cleansed. Each of those are what build up the cheer that every Christian ought to have. We have been cleansed of our iniquities, rejoice and praise the Lord. Our lives have been saved, rejoice and praise the Lord. He has empowered us to walk and follow him, rejoice and praise the Lord! This season, and every day, spread the cheer of a Christian in all that we do. For God loves a cheerful giver.
