Bulletin for the week of December 5, 2021 VOL 26/73 NO 48

R&R

Rest and relaxation are two things just about anyone is fond of. Whether you hosted a meal or family members this past holiday, plan to do so in the coming weeks, or have done so in the past, you know just how much work you have to put in to get the house ready, to be hospitable, and to reclean when everything is said and done. Maybe you're the one traveling to places, have long days at work, or the one hosting, life is tiring.

It's nice to just sit and relax every once and a while. I know there are people who love to work, and keep at it but rest is not something busy humans invented on our own. Rest is very much a biblical concept starting with creation Genesis 2:2 says, "And on the seventh day God finished his work that he had done, and he rested on the seventh day from all his work that he had done." I know we have busy schedules and oftentimes most things seem too short or to fly by too quickly but if our Creator rested we definitely need some as well. This need can no better be seen than in the ten commandments.

Exodus 20:11 says, "For in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that is in them, and rested on the seventh day. Therefore the Lord blessed the Sabbath day and made it holy." Whether we want to actually put ample time aside for rest the Lord himself did just that in Exodus. Every week there was a time of rest but it wasn't just time given to be aimless. The Lord made it holy and as such it was a day entwined with honoring God.

We do not have the Sabbath as Christians today but I think we all know how helpful a time of rest and relaxation can be in this physical life. Any human can have rest in this life. Christians are the only ones who will receive rest in the next life. Revelation 14:13 says, "And I heard a voice from heaven saying, 'Write this: Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on.' 'Blessed indeed,' says the Spirit, 'that they may rest from their labors, for their deeds follow them!'" Whenever you relax and rest, think of our Creator, those who have followed in the past as well as the rest that is in store for us.
