Voiced with Voting

by Ben Rominske, minister

The saying usually goes something like, “There are two things you don’t talk about: religion and politics.” Regardless of your political party, our day as citizens to vote in person was last Tuesday. You may have an opinion of how things went, just as I have an opinion of how things went, but none of that changes our identity. While our identity as citizens of this country is important we cannot lose focus on the greatest citizenship of all.

Philippians 3:18-21 says, “For many, of whom I have often told you and now tell you even with tears, walk as enemies of the cross of Christ. Their end is destruction, their god is their belly, and they glory in their shame, with minds set on earthly things. But our citizenship is in heaven, and from it we await a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ, who will transform our lowly body to be like his glorious body, by the power that enables him even to subject all things to himself.”

Yes, we have to deal with a lot of sinful things in this world but please never let us give our earthly citizenship priority over our heavenly one. It does not matter who is in office at any level, nor what country we are in. Christ is still our king. Our Lord is still Creator, and He will return one day. How can so many be so passionate about politics and civil rights yet have so little fervor for the Lord when they claim to be Christians?

One of the youth I worked with was sad about some things happening in the state this person lived in. I was reminded of the example we live and how talking about the Lord and Gospel will do much more for the Kingdom of God than one vote. The greatest thing about Christ’s Church is that we don’t have to vote for some flawed human. Christ is perfect and the head of a well-designed church to meet the needs of people until He returns.
