Decoration Declaration

By Ben Rominske, minister

Maybe you are exceptionally excited for the winter holidays and already decorated. My family has traditionally waited until right after Thanksgiving to start the holiday decorating and festivities. For as long as we have had Christmas at my Nonni's house, my brother and I have been right there decorating the tree. In time we grew to have a set pattern for the process. Sure it took a few hours but I treasure those times and the wonderful trees we set up.

As I started my own family, it allowed us to have our own traditions and plans for the holidays. We may not agree on every decoration choice in and around the house (the multi-color tree is cooler) but it is in this time of decoration I reflect on all of it. So much of this time is tied to family and familiarity. People tend to assemble at the same house, eat the same food, and put up the same decorations each year.

I wish I could get an accurate number of how many people decorate their houses with vigor and excitement for this season. It doesn't have to just be this time of year, but any holiday or special occasion that really resonates with you. Why does it seem that many are more excited and proud of the decorations when compared to what ought to be seen from Christians?

I am fully aware that the world doesn't like us but we can't let that stop us.

There is nothing wrong with having a lot of holiday cheer, team pride, or decorating prowess. I just encourage Christians to approach our faith in the same way. Just as our holiday decorations declare our jolly joy, so will our faith and obedience. Wear His Name with pride, and celebrate Him each and every day! I want to be someone who is decorated with the fruits of the Spirit, who wears the name of Christian, and shines a bright light in the world. I am proud to attend Watterson Trail Church of Christ because we strive to follow God by His Word and authority! Are you?
