March Madness is Coming!

by Ben Rominske, minister

This is the last Sunday before we get into March and as we turn the page to another month I sat and thought about the month ahead. As of late there has been a decent amount of talk about basketball. I know in particular college basketball is pretty much the most popular sport in Kentucky. I recall March Madness occurring while in town for Lads to Leaders and not understanding the hype or rivalry behind it all.

March Madness annually attracts a great deal of attention from the fans who have their team participating as well basketball fans at large who just enjoy the many games to watch. Oftentimes there are compelling narratives as to the current favorites to win and the unexpected underdogs. Unlike other tournaments in NCAA like baseball, every game is single elimination so it's all or nothing each game.

The best team on paper will not always win as just one game isn't a definitive result. 100 games might give you a better understanding but that's just part of the single elimination madness. I think there are few things to remember as a Christian in relation to March Madness in the coming weeks that can be of benefit for us.

1. The perfect bracket: Every year people try to predict the outcome of each game culminating in who the winner will be. With over sixty teams, the odds of getting every match up right is low. Regardless of how close your guesses are the perfect bracket has never been achieved. It should remind us of our flawed selves and the perfection of our savior that we follow

2. Our team: I am well aware of those who cheer for the blue team, the red team, or some other team. We all have our own interests and that is just fine. I also know things can get quite heated. Use this time to remember that while we may cheer for other colleges or sports teams, we are unified by being a part of God's team.

3. Excitement and hype: Sports and sports teams cause quite the excitement all over the world whether it is baseball, football, soccer or cricket even. We have strong feelings tied to what we call “our” team. If we spend hours staring at athletes on a field cheering and yelling how much more do we need such excitement and attention to the Lord God and our service to him?

The madness of it all is we have the God and Creator who loved us enough to reconcile us to Him. To offer us salvation and a hope at heaven when we do not deserve it nor can we ever repay it.
