LIFEGUARD ON DUTY

By Ben Rominske, minister

I went to various pools and waterparks growing up. There are two signs that appear in a pool and/or swimming area: “Lifeguard on Duty” and “Warning: No Lifeguard on Duty.” Often places with a great deal of patrons will have multiple lifeguards watching various pools while a smaller pool at a hotel will have a sign warning patrons of the lack of one. One website defined the job as “The primary responsibility as a lifeguard is to prevent drowning and other injuries from occurring.”

So we can have people trained to keep others safe in and around water and we can learn how to swim. How does this relate to us spiritually? Matthew 14:30-31 says “But when he saw the wind, he was afraid, and beginning to sink he cried out, ‘Lord, save me.’ Jesus immediately reached out his hand and took hold of him, saying to him, ‘O you of little faith, why did you doubt?’”

I was sinking deep in sin
Far from the peaceful shore
Very deeply stained within
Sinking to rise no more
But the master of the sea
Heard my despairing cry
From the waters lifted me
Now safe am I
Love lifted me

Certainly Christ is our lifeguard, having saved us from the depths of sin. Yet we still have responsibilities when it comes to our souls. There is not a free pass given to us. I then think back to the times where signs warn pool patrons to be safe because a paid lifeguard is not there. Each one of us is responsible for our own lives and doing our best to live carefully. Proverbs 4:23 says, “Keep your heart with all vigilance, for from it flow the springs of life.”

In a time full of pool fun, water works, and lake time, take time to remember the one who is our lifeguard. All the while not forgetting our responsibility to be vigilant and obedient to what we've been commanded to do.
