LEAVES LEAVES

EVERYWHERE

The picturesque fall colors are sought after by many. I'd be surprised if you had not yet seen some leaves fall. You might enjoy this time because you can get cozy with a blanket and hot drink or maybe you love driving around to see the color changing. Regardless, many are fans of fall. At the center of fall in themes, backgrounds, posters, tv shows, and even real life are leaves!

Leaves at this time of year have two sides, in my opinion. The first, and already alluded to, side is that of being enjoyable. We can admire the vast array of beautiful fall colors on the trees and plants around. It certainly ought remind us of our Creator and how he made them and made it possible for us to appreciate beauty. You might also, maybe in younger years, have enjoyed playing in leaf piles. So yes there is a good side.

BUT! There is also a bad side. Who has to clean them up? As a kid I'll tell you who, Ben! Oh the long hours of raking leaves, to put on the tarp, to dump over the hill, just to do it all over again. Our neighbor just last week was running the lawn mower over his (smart move). What about when it rains? Oh soggy leaves are some of the worst!

Maybe all these leaves can serve as a reminder for our own Christian walks. We can be seen by others and our works glorify God. We can brighten people's days spreading the love of God and shining our lights. Yet, we can also be like the bad side of the leaves. So, which will you be?
