HEADS OR TAILS

From the desk of Ben Rominske, minister

It's a simple question. Statistically it's 50/50. Maybe tails never fails. How about a horseshoe, a rabbit's foot, or a four leaf clover. You hear all the time about athletes' crazy rituals before games. I mean fans even will stay out of the room if they are convinced it helps their team. Spoiler, whether or not you are doesn't really change a thing. But do we rely on luck more than the Lord?

Psalm 37 "1 Fret not yourself because of evildoers; be not envious of wrongdoers! 2 For they will soon fade like the grass and wither like the green herb. 3 Trust in the Lord, and do good; dwell in the land and befriend faithfulness. 4 Delight yourself in the Lord, and he will give you the desires of your heart. 5 Commit your way to the Lord; trust in him, and he will act."

Rather than trusting in luck, we can trust in God's providence and guidance. When things go well, we can give thanks to God for His blessings. When we face challenges, we can seek His wisdom and strength.

The coin is before you, what is your choice? I'm picking the side that lands on the head "we are to grow up in every way into him who is the head, into Christ" (Eph. 4:15)
