Our God

From the desk of Ben Rominske, minister

Our God is an awesome God, how I love the great redeemer, Father God, Lamb of God, Our God He is Alive, Guide me O Thou Great Jehovah, To the King. I'm sure just reading this you can think of plenty more songs or even passages that talk about God. But why bring this up? It is because of the class we are starting this Wednesday!

A class about the nature of Our God, the Creator. A deeper study into the attributes of God comes with a handful of goals. 1. To learn the various attributes of the one who made us and died for us. Many misunderstanding by skeptics, former followers of God, as well as confused people of faith come from not understand who the LORD God is.

2. In learning those things, we will be able to have a more informed and meaningful relationship with Him. Once we not only know but understand more about God, that should motivate how we live! 3. To live with the perspective of faith that comes from realizing the greatness of God. Truly, there is non greater.

I look forward to this study, I hope you do too, and I will be praying for all of us as we get to go through this. May we be reverent and seeking to honor the One True God. To the King, eternal, forever and ever amen.
